

Zero FIR Rights - Fact Sheet

A Zero FIR is an FIR that can be registered by any police station, irrespective of jurisdiction, when it receives a complaint regarding a cognizable offence.

Why it is crucial for women:

1. Immediate action can be taken without jurisdictional delays.
2. It prevents evidence from being destroyed.
3. After registration, the Zero FIR is transferred to the police station with actual jurisdiction for investigation.